

YEMEN: Pray for the husband-and-wife team serving with our Partner in Yemen as they patiently walk with seekers, sometimes over many years.

YEMEN: Ask God to encourage people who cannot safely gather with Christians. May secure online fellowship, prayer and personal follow-up remind them that they are not alone.

EGYPT: Pray for a Christian media team developing digital ministry and strengthening follow-up and discipleship. May online contact grow into trusted relationships where people can safely ask difficult questions about Jesus.

Africa 12–21 Dec

NORTHEAST AFRICA: Dawit* has spent more than 25 years using audio to share Jesus among remote communities and cultures where oral communication is especially important. Pray for him as he now mentors local teams serving across different languages, cultures and security contexts. Ask God to give them wisdom and perseverance as they help people hear the Good News in ways they can understand.

NORTHEAST AFRICA: Mohamed* had long been deeply committed to the faith he grew up with, but began questioning whether something was missing. Through Christian friends and biblical audio in his own language, he started exploring who Jesus is. Pray for Mohamed and others who are quietly wrestling with what they believe.

WEST AFRICA: Pray for local teams using radio, community visits and WhatsApp Bible studies to serve a nomadic people group amid growing insecurity. Ask God to protect those travelling to meet listeners face-to-face.

ETHIOPIA: Pray for the unreached Afar. Population: 2,366,000†. Language: Afar. Religion: Islam.

Global 22–26 Dec

Praise God for an FEBC family communicating the gospel through hundreds of stations and transmitters, in more than 150 languages, and receiving millions of listener responses and conversations.

Pray that behind every large number are people who become known, loved and disciplined – and for the broadcasters, counsellors, engineers, programmers and local leaders who make that possible.

Australia 27–31 Dec

Praise God for the extraordinary response of Australian supporters to the recent Field Emergency Response appeal. Pray for wisdom as that generosity helps local Partners respond when damaged towers, power failures and equipment problems threaten the connection with listeners.

Pray that the response to FEBC Australia's Christmas Appeal will help local Partners continue sharing the Good News and serving people in hard-to-reach communities across their countries.

Thank God for the prayers, generosity and friendship of Australian supporters who stand alongside local FEBC teams around the world. Pray that these relationships continue to deepen – not simply knowing more about the ministry, but knowing and caring for the people who carry it.

*Name changed to protect identity.
† Statistics from the Joshua Project.

Prayer points in this edition of Praise & Prayer reflect the work of the global FEBC Association, not all of which is funded by FEBC Australia.

For more info, visit:

febc.org.au

PO BOX 183 Caringbah NSW 1495
P 1300 720 017 E office@febc.org.au
S febc.org.au/socials

Far East Broadcasting Co (Australia)
ABN 68 000 509 517
FEBC Relief Limited
ABN 87 617 872 287

East Asia 1–12 Oct

CHINA: Praise God for a single mother who began listening to Christian broadcasts while struggling with anxiety and depression after her divorce. Through Scripture, prayer and the broadcasts, she found hope and healing in Jesus. Pray for others quietly searching for that same hope.

CHINA: Pray for families being reached through Christian counselling programs. May parents and children experience restored relationships and Christ's transforming grace.

SOUTH KOREA: Praise God for more than 73,000 responses to FEBC Korea broadcasts in a two-month period this year, with more than 1,500 people reporting that they gave their lives to Jesus or recommitted their faith.

SOUTH KOREA: One listener asked FEBC Korea's prayer team to pray for her grandfather. Before he died, he accepted Jesus. Praise God for this answer to prayer, and pray that many more families see loved ones come to faith.

MONGOLIA: Pray for a new broadcast as the team builds relationships with people in need. Ask God to bring healing and draw listeners towards faith in Jesus.

JAPAN: Pray for the unreached Okinawan Ryukyuan people. Population: 1,145,000†. Language: Central Okinawan. Religion: Ethnic Religions.

Southeast Asia 13–26 Oct

PHILIPPINES: For more than 30 years, Pastor Rey* has shared the gospel with Matigsalug, Manobo and Bisaya communities in the mountains of Mindanao. Pray for continued strength and wisdom as families gather around two-way radios to hear Scripture and speak with him in real time.

PHILIPPINES: Pray that these conversations lead beyond listening to growing faith, discipleship and strong local Christian communities.

INDONESIA: Praise God for Yancen, FEBC Indonesia's Ministry Director, whose own journey back to God now shapes his heart for young people. Pray for wisdom as his team reaches a generation wrestling with loneliness, identity and uncertainty.

CAMBODIA: Chhun Leang once rejected the gospel when her son shared it with her. During a season of illness and anxiety she began listening to Voice of Love Cambodia's daily prayer program, chose to follow Jesus and now helps lead a small group. Praise God for a listener who has become a leader.

CAMBODIA: Pray for marriages and families being challenged and encouraged through biblical teaching and family ministry. May homes marked by conflict experience restoration through Christ.

CAMBODIA: Pray for the unreached Kui. Population: 38,000†. Language: Kuay. Religion: Buddhism.

South Asia 27 Oct–7 Nov

SOUTH ASIA: Karan* describes portable speaker boxes as “local missionaries” carrying God's Word into communities without internet, Bibles, pastors or Christian resources. Pray that these simple devices continue opening doors for the gospel.

SOUTH ASIA: Iji* cannot read, but longed to know more about Jesus. A portable speaker enabled her to hear God's Word for herself. Praise God for the change taking place in her life, and pray for others whose first access to Scripture may come through listening.

SOUTH ASIA: Pray for small listener hubs gathering in homes and beneath trees to listen, pray and discuss what they hear. May these gatherings grow into communities of faithful disciples.

PAKISTAN: Pray for Christians living as a small minority in a nation where following Jesus can bring significant pressure. Ask God to give believers courage, wisdom and grace.

PAKISTAN: Pray for local media teams reaching people through social media and personal follow-up. May those searching for truth encounter the love of Christ.

Pray for the unreached Bedia in India. Population: 593,000†. Language: Hindi. Religion: Hinduism.

Central Asia 8–17 Nov

CENTRAL ASIA: Hasam* began calling Christian broadcaster Omid* after hearing gospel programs. At one point he threatened Omid because of his faith, but Omid continued responding with love and prayer. After months of conversation, Hasam said he had changed his mind and wanted to meet. Praise God for this change, and pray that He continues softening Hasam's heart and drawing him towards Jesus.

KAZAKHSTAN: Pray for Yernur, a listener asking sincere questions about God. Ask the Lord to reveal Himself clearly and draw Yernur towards Jesus.

CENTRAL ASIA: Pray for Daniel* as he leads the local ministry team. May his own story of forgiveness and transformed relationships help others see that following Jesus is not foreign, but deeply personal.

Across Central Asia, pray for follow-up workers where conversations may be slow, difficult or risky. May they respond with wisdom, courage and the character of Jesus.

Eurasia 18–29 Nov

UKRAINE: Praise God for FEBC Ukraine staff who continue broadcasting while carrying the effects of war in their own families and communities. Pray for wisdom, protection and strength.

UKRAINE: Ihor is training younger staff to take on greater production responsibility as experienced broadcasters have been conscripted. Pray for him as he equips a new generation to continue the ministry.

UKRAINE: Emma is helping churches respond to women and families carrying trauma, grief and relationship strain. Praise God that some women are reporting better sleep and healthier relationships with their families. Pray for deeper healing.

UKRAINE: Pray that Bible messages carried on small speaker boxes to soldiers, and Bible stories shared with children through audio players, bring comfort and hope to families separated by war.

EURASIA: Pray for Christian counsellors responding to increasingly complex questions, grief and personal struggles in conflict zones. Ask the Holy Spirit to give them wisdom and compassion.

EURASIA: Praise God for the strong response to short gospel videos made with local pastors. Pray that digital engagement leads to faith, discipleship and connection with local believers.

Middle East 30 Nov–11 Dec

IRAQ: Praise God for listeners coming to faith in Jesus through local broadcasts and personal follow-up. Pray for Khaled and other new believers to receive wise discipleship and find supportive Christian community.

IRAQ: Pray for the broadcasters and follow-up workers of our Partner in Iraq as they serve amid social, political and economic pressure. May listeners experience people prepared to listen, pray and walk alongside them.

YEMEN: Sara* had lived with grief and desperation before hearing the words of Jesus. She has now accepted Christ and is being disciplined by another believer. Praise God for her new faith and pray that her family also comes to know Jesus.